

New: An Introduction to General Data Protection Regulation

Learn how GDPR may affect you as a data controller and what you can do now to prepare

Who is the course for?

This course is suitable for anyone who employs individuals or offers services to citizens in the EU. The GDPR brings with it considerable change to the rules around personal data and its use. This course aims to highlight the key issues that might affect you as a business and to help you understand the next steps for your business. This may include seeking legal advice and getting more information for your managers across your business.

What will be covered?

These are some of the main areas that will be covered in the course:

- ☐ Key differences between the Data Protection Act and GDPR
- ☐ Implications of GDPR
- ☐ Privacy principles
- ☐ Personal data – definition changes
- ☐ Privacy notices
- ☐ Data subjects and their rights
- ☐ Data Protection Impact Assessments (DPIA)
- ☐ The controller/processor relationship
- ☐ Reporting breaches
- ☐ Data protection officer
- ☐ What action you could take now

The course

The course will take place as a group webinar and last for two hours plus time for a question and answer session.

COST: £195 + VAT

Please call us for the latest dates and times availability.

We are happy to offer discounted rates to businesses wishing to book multiple places for several of their employees at once. Please speak to us about your individual requirements.

Give us a call on 0344 815 5676 or email sales@iris.co.uk to find out how IRIS training can benefit you and your business.