

What are the benefits of our new remote working culture?

Improving wellbeing

Make more time for the things that matter to you

Increasing productivity

Work when it's convenient to work, without distraction or delay

Embracing new habits

Make the most of technology to improve business flexibility

With the right tools to hand, your HR team can make the most of remote working to improve efficiency, support employee wellbeing and look forward to a sustainable future.

Built to meet your needs, IRIS Cascade is proven to streamline processes and protect costs, enhancing your competitive advantage now whilst preparing your business for the future – whatever it may look like.

From onboarding to staff development, and everything in between, our intuitive HR software and payroll management system helps you to manage the entire employee experience.